DOT'S WASHING MACHINE

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED—AND THE NEW

Universal Clothes Wringer.

Improved with Rowell's Patent Double Cog-wheels and the Patent Stop, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:
"We use our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the situation."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E.
Church.
"It is worth a dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.
"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.
"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.
"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr.
Bellows.
"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our Machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.
"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it.
It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned board." By using it, one laundress is dispensed with. Infant Deaf and dumb, Superintendent of Infant Deaf and dumb of St.
Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. C.

PRICES—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $14. Extra Wringer $8, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and if sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.
No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Conveyers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.
Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

CYNTHIANA, --- JANUARY 6, 1870.

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

(For the Cynthiana News.)

WHEREAS, The Trustees of the Battle Grove Cemetery Association have kindly donated to the Baptist Church, at Cynthiana, Lot No. 88, in the Cemetery, as the last resting place for our Ministers and their families, where the weary ones who have led the flock may rest among those for whom they have labored, Therefore,

Resolved 1st. That we tender our thanks to the Association for the generous donation.

Resolved 2nd. That we will ever hold in high estimation the valued gift, and treasure it, not only for the sake of the donors, but for the loved ones it may in the future contain.

Resolved 3rd. That we as a church offer our prayers to the Giver of all good, that he let his richest blessing rest on the members of the Association, and when they shall be consigned to the "city of the dead," may their immortal spirits be wafted to eternal joys in heaven.

Done by order of the church, this 18th day of December, 1869.

REPUTATION.

Speech of Hon. William Mungen, of Ohio, in the House of Representatives, December 16, 1869.

CONTINENTAL CURRENCY REPUDIATED.

I have in my possession one of those old Continental notes, which I presented to General Spinner, the Treasurer of the United States, and also to Mr. McCulloch, when Secretary of the Treasury, for redemption; both of these gentlemen informed me in a very pleasant manner that there was an act of Congress for bidding the redemption of that kind of paper. That act was repudiation. But the repudiation of the continental currency did not retard the growth of this country; nor did any of the repudiations mentioned do serious injury to the prosperity of the nations and countries so repudiating. These repudiations affected a few of the citizens of those countries; perhaps one in fifty thousand, just as repudiation here would affect the masses of the people of the people of the burdens of taxation, which were in every instance crushing the life out of them; they knocked the letters from their wrists and bade them hope; for the effect was that they might be freemen, not slaves, and enjoy the fruits and rewards of their own toil and energy.
They gave new life and buoyancy to the nations and countries. There will be some bondholders and bankers, men who have not gained their wealth by industry and honesty in most cases, who will be cut off somewhat in their surplus wealth by repudiation. Phlebotomy and car-tharistics sometimes are very beneficial to surcharged systems; repudiation would have the same effect on the purses of some individuals, and might even be of personal benefit to him here and hereafter, for the Lord hates the haughty spirit, and they would doubtless become more humble. The nation's pulse would beat livelier, labor would breathe more freely, and the national health would be greatly improved if the burden of $146,000,000 of gold interest annually was taken off, and then as much more which goes to the officers who collect it; $392,000,000 in gold is a heavy load.

BONDS DISHONESTLY OBTAINED.

But I am in favor of repudiating the bonds issued for this debt, because they were in nine cases out of ten dishonestly obtained; got through fraudulent contracts, shoddy contracts, &c.; because they were mostly bought for from thirty-five to fifty cents on the dollar, and were bought by capitalists at this reduced rate by a systematized and unpatriotic course of what I denominate swindling. The capitalists of the country did not advance a dollar to the Government until it was at its last extremity. Permit me to repeat words spoken by me on this floor in January last:

"Government struggling for its life; Wall Street brokers looking calmly on as it is getting weaker from loss of blood and the enormous drain upon its energies. Wall Street broker says to Uncle Sam: 'I will let you have $400,000 on one or two trifling conditions.' Uncle Sam wishes to ascertain the conditions, when he is coolly informed that Mr. Broker must have Government bonds to the amount of $1,000,000 for his $400, 000; must have six per cent. interest in gold, payable semi annually, on the $1,000,000, and must be exempt from the payment of all local and municipal taxes, and then the notes may be payable in from five to twenty years. Government must have money or die, and is forced to accept the swindling proposition.

Jeff. Davis & Co., looking on, says:
'A Government forced to that condition, forced to accept such terms cannot stand long. Let us hope.
Her capitalists are doing more to break their Government down than the Confederate forces can do by fighting.'"

They were thus encouraged, and I feel safe in saying that if the capitalists had come manfully up and advanced their funds to aid the Government to put down the rebellion as freely as the soldiers in the field, and the sailors in the navy bared their breasts to the red flame of battle, the war would not have lasted half the time it did.

LOYAL HYPOCRITES.

The capitalists had the money to give, and as much as was necessary, at first, but would not give it until they got two or three hundred per cent. profit. Out upon the hypocritical cry of loyalty now!

By such men, to extort more money from the toiling and laboring masses of the country! The capitalists, with one or two honorable exceptions, are fairly chargeable with half the lives lost in the war.

The claim that they bought the bonds from loyal motives is without foundation. The same motive prompted the Englishman to buy them which actuated the Wall Street swindler when he purchased. Who will claim that the Englishman purchased bonds because he loved this Government? He was as loyal when he was fitting out the practical Tallahassee and Alabama as when he bought the bonds. They were all purchased on speculation. If these bondholders had never received a cent from Government, their patriotism would have been fully paid. They have no patriotism. We should not tax the soldiers and sailors who fought, nor their widows and orphans, on the pittance left to them after their great bereavement, to pay those unjust debts. Let us wipe them out.

BONDS ALREADY PAID.

It is not unjust to repudiate those bonds because the holders have, in a large majority of cases, had more money in gold from the Government in the shape of interest, than they originally invested in the purchase of the bonds, including interest on the investment.

To illustrate, seven years ago a Wall Street capitalist purchased a Government bond calling for $1,000; for this he gave to the Government forty per cent, or $400. During these seven years he has received interest regularly at six per cent. per annum on $1,000, the face of the bond, payable every six months.
Compound interest on $1,000 at six per cent. will in seven years amount to $1512.56 in gold, which would be $768.84 in currency. He has been exempted from all local and municipal taxes, which is a reasonable rate, saves him two and one-half per cent. per annum, and which, in the time mentioned, amounts on the face of the bond to $175. Franklin said that a penny saved is as good as a penny earned. Add these items together, and they amount to $687.56 in gold, or in currency, $943.84.
Now, compound interest on $400, the amount invested amounts to $301.45 in gold, or in currency, $302.17, which, added to the $490, equals $601.45 in gold, or $702.17 in currency, leaving a difference in favor of the bondholder over the man who invests his money honestly of $86.11 in gold, or $221.67 in currency. If we deduct from this two and one-half per cent. for taxation, it still leaves $16.11 in gold or $179.37 in currency in favor of the bondholder.
Is there anything wrong or unjust in repudiating such a debt? The people have paid the bonds, and are entitled to have them cancelled just as much as a person is entitled to have his promissory note canceled when he pays it up in full with interest. It is gross injustice to grind the laborer, the merchant, the mechanic, the widow, and the crippled soldier to the earth to pay these bonds a second time, and this, too, for the sole purpose of keeping up a bloated and insolent bondholding and banking aristocracy.

NATIONAL BANK INFAMY.

I am in favor of wiping out this bonded debt because on it the national bank currency is based; and when it is wiped out the notes of the Government will for a time, until we can come back to the constitutional currency at least, take the place of these national bank notes. This would increase the volume of the currency one-tenth and no more. It is well-known that between the gold interest received on about three hundred and forty-two million four hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars of bonds deposited by bankers as collateral security for about three hundred million dollars of circulation issued by the Government to them, and the shrewd and cunning manipulation of the currency so received, the national bankers manage to make from twenty-four to thirty-seven per cent. on their bonds per annum.

This amounts to about one hundred million dollars, and doubles their investment in a little over three years, all at the expense of labor, and all inuring to the benefit of capital.
The Comptroller of the Treasury says in his annual report, delivered to this House on the 6th inst., that the national banks loan the people $700, 000,000 annually. Interest on this amount at six per cent. would be $42,000,000. Deduct $1,000,000 from that sum as interest paid to depositors, it would leave $41,000,000 clear.
I know of national banks advertising that they will pay ten per cent. interest on deposits for six months, and they make enormous profits on those deposits. Some have declared thirty-seven per cent. annually.— They receive at least twelve per cent. clear profit, which would be $84,000,000 each year. Some of them declare dividends of thirty seven per cent. on their capital.
Some gentlemen have said that the national banks, like a national debt, are a rational blessing, I do not so understand the matter.

GRIND THE POOR.

Another reason for repudiation is that the taxes to pay the interest on these bonds as long as they are in existence is a prior lien on the property, labor, bone, muscle, and earnings of the masses. The private debts of the citizen may go unpaid, and his wife and children may suffer the pinches and privations of cold and hunger, but the interest on the bonds must be paid; the Government officials must have their property; Mr. and Mrs. Shoddy must have their carriage, and their servants, and their plate, and their luxuries, despite the sufferings of the masses.

Again, the expense is so enormous, and comes entirely off the laboring classes, that these bondholders are a curse to the nation.

Caught at last.
Last Monday the notorious Jonathan Davis was arrested in Covington, by Marshall Butts and Creighton, upon the charge of blowing open the safe of Geo. Durant, at Boyd's Station, in this county, about 12 months since and taking therefrom about $300. Mr. Durant is the Adams Express Agent and Telegraph Operator at Boyd's. The party or parties who robbed his office, after they got thorough with the job took his telegraph instruments and threw them into the Licking River. Davis has long been suspected of being the safe blower and robber in that case, but the officers have not until recently been able to obtain sufficient testimony to warrant them in arresting him. He was brought to Cynthia last Tuesday night and after examination was sent to jail in default of $3,000 bail.

Church of the Advent, Protestant Episcopal.

The Rev. W. Tearne, desires to express his warmest thanks to the Hon. Judge Broadwell, for his generous gift of a beautiful Tree for the Children's Festival; to the ladies and gentlemen of his own and others churches, for their works of love in the very tasteful decoration of the church and Tree, and to all those kind friends who contributed gifts for the same, and last, but not least, to the beloved members of his church and other friends who so freely and generously loaded both himself and family with their offerings of love, on the evening of the Festival and during the week preceding.

January 4, 1870.
Notes.
The next meeting of the Mite Society will be at the residence of Dr. Peckover, on Friday evening, the 14th inst., at 6.30.

The Class for Vocal Music will meet as usual on Wednesday evening, at 6.30.

Christmas.
Past off very lively in Cynthia, and with the exception of some rudeness towards our black people would have been harmoniously pleasant. Our black people behave well as a general thing, and there is nothing so detestable, in the estimation of genteel people of this State, as that of picking upon and abusing them, and it is the more obnoxious because in the case which we have in our minds eye, just now, was that of a man but recently from the north and who doubtless has been a freedomer and shooter, and now by his actions towards the blackman, fears to come in contact with him. The laws of the country give ample protection to all.

Personal.
Our excellent friend Wesley Barrett, Esq., arrived home from Missouri last week. He has left in our office the wing of a wild Swan, which he killed in Missouri, and which measured seven feet and two inches from tip to tip.

Oscar Kennard, of Georgetown was in Cynthia last week looking well and hearty. He and his friend Moses Kimbrough were visiting their relatives.

Mr. Clark, a sprightly young lawyer from Falmouth, was in Cynthia last week.

Paul K. continues to assert his democracy. Speaking of the weather he believes from the appearance of the Goose Bone, that Farmers and all persons having houses, may prepare them for ice, as the latter part of this month, he shall have plenty of snow and snapping cold weather before us.

Mr. John L. Murray, of the House of Woods & Co., Cincinnati, called to see us yesterday. He is looking well and prosperous.

Children's Festival on Christmas Eve, at the Church of the Advent.

This beautiful Church presented at once an animated and handsome appearance on Christmas Eve. The windows, doors and chancel were lightly decorated with evergreens, displaying the great artistic taste and skill of the ladies, while in the center of the chancel towered the beautiful Christmas Tree, the gift of the Hon. Judge Broadwell, loaded with nice and sparkling gifts of almost every kind, most admirably arranged. The children's happy faces glow with expectation, and the crowd of friends who filled the church, presented a most animated scene.

The proceedings were commenced by singing by the children, followed by a short lesson and selection of prayer's another song by the children, a brief earnest congratulatory address by the Rector, after which the Tree was lighted, while the children sang "Christ was born in Bethlehem." Then followed the distribution of the gifts, a large number of which were of great value and beauty. Costly Jewelry and articles of value abounded. Much merriment was occasioned by the presentation of toys and candy to some of the gentlemen. The presents to the Rector and family were both numerous and useful, indeed, too numerous to mention, exhibiting the happy relationship in which the Pastor and members of this revived and thriving little church stand to each other.

We were glad to see the Revs. C. W. Miller and H. Chase in the chancel with the Rector, and to hear Bro.

Tearne express himself so cordially towards his brethren in the work and service of Christ. This spirit of unity and love among our Evangelical Clergy is a good sign for our town; may it continue and increase.

We congratulate both Pastor and members of this church on the great progress they have made, and the success with which God has crowned their labors in so short a time. We understand that the Sunday School register contains a list of 75 or 80 scholars, besides a Bible Class for young men of about twenty in number conducted by the Rector. Bro. Tearne informs us that he is happy in being supported by a most excellent and devoted Superintendent and staff of teachers. This being so, all working together in zeal and love this church and school must grow and flourish and be a blessing in our midst. May God prosper them, and may the next Festival be still more encouraging and successful, if that be possible.

Sudden Death.
Mr. Lewis Van Hook, was put on the up train at Falmouth, in an insensible condition, and died between Boyd's and Berry's Stations, about 10-12, a. m., Jan. 5th. On the arrival of the train, coroner Rowland took charge of the body and summoned a Jury, who returned a verdict of "Death from unknown causes." We would not wish to attach blame to any one, and friendliness might have detected sending him home, but from what we can learn from the gentleman, who was with him at the time of his death, Mr. Van Hook, was nearly in a dying condition when put in the car. Mr. Luther Van Hook passed down on the train for Covington at the time his brother was put on the train, and did not know his condition.

DR. FISHLATT,

Office 21 Second Avenue, New York City.

Where he can be Consulted Personally, or by Mail.

DR. FISHLATT has discovered the most certain, specific and only effectual remedy in the world for weakness in the back or limbs, strictures, affections of the kidneys or bladder, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, dyspepsia, languor, loss of spirits, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat or skin, affection of the lungs, liver, stomach, or bowels, those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth—secret and solitary practices, more fatal than the songs of the Sirens, the charms of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes and annihilating their future prospects. It is impossible. YOUNG MEN, especially, who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellects, who might otherwise have enriched listening Senators with the thunder of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons or young men and ladies contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, especially curable. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Fishblatt, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely on his skill as a physician.

CHRONIC WEAKNESS immediately cured, and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excess from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will not avail himself of the power of prevention? It is sooner by these falling into improper habits than by the prudent! Besides being deprived of the pleasure of marital cohabitation, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, and wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay, and early death.

Dr. Fishblatt graduated from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Dr. Fishblatt addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, by fitting them for either business, study, society or marriage. He is one of the sad and mischievous effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the breast, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, derangement of the digestive functions, &c.

MENTAL.—The effects on the mind are such as to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages endeavor to judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a sugar appearance about the eyes, cough, and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN, who have neglected themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when about to be married, or married from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders life a miserable, and destroys both body and mind, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of the country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating marriage, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these attainments, the prospects hourly darken to view the mind becomes clouded with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another being is blighted with his own.

Disease of Imprudence.
When the misguided and imprudent victory of pleasure finds that he has indulged in the use of ardent spirits, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from respectability, can alone best him. He falls into the hands of designing quacks, who, incapable of curing, filch pecuniary substance, keep him trailing month after month, years—long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him alone, with ruined health, to sigh over his galling disappointment; or by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., progress with a frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to this unrelenting sufferer; by sending him to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

Those who reside at a distance, wishing treatment, CAN HAVE MEDICINE SENT THEM BY EXPRESS $10.
